Greeley is Informed of his Nomination and makes a Gushing Speech

New York, July 12.—The ... to-day notifying Greeley of the Baltimore nomination was quite brief and formal, after which he introduced the members of the committee individually. Greeley spoke as follows:

I should need time were I to attempt to reply fitly and fully to this important and I need not say gratifying communication. It may be that I should reply in writing, but as I have addressed a letter which has been pretty widely considered, to the Liberal Republican Convention it may not be necessary. I can only say now that I accept your nomination in the same spirit in which it is offered. [Cheers.] I am at present in a position which many doubtless regard as a proud one, but which is to me an embarrassing one, because it involves the temporary, and I trust but temporary, annoyance of a misconstruction of my motives on the part of some valued and lifelong friends. I am confident that time alone is necessary to vindicate my motives to all and convince all, in deed, of the patriotism of the course I am pursuing and intended to pursue long before I was assured of such co-operation and sympathy. [Cheers.] The time will come, I hope, in good opportunity, when the world will see that you are no less Democrats because you have pursued the course you have, and that I am no less a Republican because I accept your nomination. [Cheers.] [Here Mr. Greeley's voice faltered with emotion. He recovered himself and continued.]

I am not much in the habit of receiving nominations for the Presidency. [Great laughter.] I am in consequence unable to reply as readily as others might. [Renewed laughter.] I can only say that I will be happy to see all of you, or at least as many of you as can come, to my humble farm house, where I shall be to-morrow, and where we shall be able to converse and confer more freely than here. If you come I shall be happy to make you welcome to the best the farm can afford. [Laughter and cheers.] And so I simply bid you farewell.

New York News

New York, July 12.—The engagements for the export of specie to-morrow are two and a half million dollars.

The conductor and engineer of one of the trains in the recent collision on the South Side railroad have been imprisoned on the verdict of the Coroner's jury finding them guilty of carelessness.

The public schools of Jersey City, New Jersey, have been closed on account of the prevalence of small pox in the city.

Ex-Senator Doolittle attended a Democratic meeting at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Carl Schurz will speak at several points in North Carolina before August.

Senator Bayard sails for Europe to-day for his health. In a letter July 11th he expresses his intention of supporting the Greeley ticket.

The National Liberal Republican Committee met yesterday and elected Ethan Allen as permanent Chairman and Jasper W. Johnson, of Oregon, as one of the Secretaries. A resolution was passed recommending a union of Liberal Republicans and Democrats in selecting State candidates. Carl Schurz and B. Gratz Brown were present. Some of the Committee will visit Chappaqua to-day.

Local politicians are very busy organizing campaign clubs in different wards.

Henry Wilson has gone to Long Branch on a visit to the President.

The Stokes Case

New York, July 12.—Tremaine concluded his argument for the defence in the Stokes case at a quarter past three this afternoon. District Attorney Davis consumed the rest of the day in his address for the people.

New York, July 13.—Stokes' verdict will doubtless be given this afternoon.

Undignified Treatment of Gen. Sherman

New York, July 13.—A Berlin correspondent says that General Sherman has expressed himself disgusted not only with his reception there but with German manners generally. At a dinner at Minister Bancroft's, at which General Von Moltke was present, the great general did scarcely more than exchange salutations. General Sherman's meeting with Prince Frederick Charles passed off in almost the same way. At Potsdam General Sherman was refused admission to the park, because the Emperor was entertaining some imperial guests. Subsequently, while the military review was taking place and while the troops were being reviewed by the Emperor, General Sherman, who was invited to witness the affair and be presented to the Emperor, remembering the Potsdam incident, politely declined.

Declining a Democratic Nomination

Indiana ... July 13.—The ... this morning publishes a letter from C. M. Depew declining to accept the nomination for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic ticket.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The London Press on Greeley

London, July 12.—The papers continue to comment on the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore as ... The ... confesses ... sympathies with Greeley as a newspaper man. The ... declares such a ... will largely tend to bring about the abandonment of a system whereby the people of America have so long been deprived of a real ... in their choice of presidents. The ... styles Greeley a political weather cock, and says the Democrats, supported by the South, are endeavoring to unseat a General who saved the Union. The Standard thinks that Greeley would not be an eligible candidate were it not for his electioneering strength. He is as honest as a partisan can be, and he occasionally shows glimpses of rough good sense, but he is of violent disposition, without regular education, and devoid of anything like experience in the administration of public affairs. In fact he is a good yeoman of the last generation. Although Greeley is inferior to Adams he is not inferior to Grant. We do not believe if he is elected his subordinates will be appointed from the ... office.

Severe Storms in England

London, July 13.—Storms throughout England yesterday were very destructive. In the middle and southern counties and many other places the growing crops were prostrated and destroyed. Several people were killed by lightning.

WEST INDIES

Further of the Steamer Fannie

New York, July 12.—A Nassau letter confirms the news of the arrival of the crew of the steamer ... and says that when her men and cargo were landed on the coast of Cuba, Ryan sent out scouts and captured nine Spanish pickets within thirty miles. He took them to his camp and executed them.

UTAH

Greeley Takes with the Polygamists

Salt Lake, July 13.—There was an ... meeting here last night of the ... ticket. It was mainly composed of Mormons who are unanimous for Greeley.

ARIZONA

Indians, Homicides, Celebrations and Coal Oil

Los Angeles, July 13.—The Arizona ... says ... one hundred Indians have come in to Camp Verde.

Heavy rains had fallen in the Wallapai ...

Earl and other heavy tax payers and prominent citizens.

Ex-Governor Edward Stanly died at the Grand Hotel at 10 o'clock last evening, having been insensible from the moment of the first attack.

Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the San Francisco temporary loan bonds, running only till January next, at the rate of six per cent. interest, have been awarded as follows: Savings and Loan Society, $200,000, at 96 3-100 per cent.; $100,000 at 92 2-100 per cent.; $100,000 at 97 53-100 per cent., and J. Seligman & Co., $50,000 at ... 10-100 per cent.

The Committee of One Hundred have called a meeting at Mercantile Library Hall this evening for subscription to the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad project.

News of the determination of the Mikado of Japan to visit Europe and America and the arrival of his suite by the steamer America to-day creates considerable comment. It is looked upon as the most important movement yet inaugurated in the great revolution now going on in that country.

The workmen on the Central Pacific Railroad wharf and depot operations at Mission Bay, who have been receiving $2 per day for eleven hours labor, struck to-day for $2 25 and ten hours labor. There are about 125 and there is a probability of the success of the strike.

The stock excitement is nearly up to boiling point at the Board to-day. Sixteen thousand six hundred and ninety five shares were sold at a single session. Sales at the open Board were unusually large, and those at the afternoon session of the open Board being much larger than ever and at generally advanced prices.

The 35th parallel railroad meeting at Mercantile Library Hall this evening, was well attended, but so far nothing practical is done.

The examination of the Ansbro and Auffrey case is now going on in the Police Court. When the escaped nun was brought into court there was a rush to see her, and the officers keeping back the crowd were so roughly hustled that they arrested some of the parties. Professor Auffrey underwent a long examination and cross examination. One of Ansbro's witnesses swore that he knew the Professor and Edith O'Gorman as medicants ... in Australia in 1860, thereupon the Professor introduced passports, etc., showing that he was then in school in France and served in the Pontifical Zouaves in Rome. The case is not concluded, but the Professor and the nun seem to have rather the best of it so far.

The escaped nun and Auffrey case is much talked of this evening. It is evident that there is some terrible perjury in this case on one side or the other. The detectives swore positively to having known both Edith and the Professor in Australia previous to 1860, that she was the associate of lewd women, and he of thieves, etc. But the Professor and Edith swore equally positively that they were never there in their lives, and he produced documentary evidence that he was in school in France during the years they swore he was there. Furthermore, he swore that Edith is his wife, and gave the name of a prominent Baptist clergyman in New York who married them. The detectives swore positively to the Professor's assault with a pistol on detective Ellis, corroborating each other thoroughly, while Auffrey swore positively that he never carried a pistol in his life. The same square contradiction is made on the story of Ansbro, that he saw Edith drunk in a saloon in this city. It is evident that the religious prejudices of the community are entering into this case strongly. It is not yet concluded.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

The Stokes Trial

New York, July 13.—The jury retired at 2:30 P. M., and returned at ... P. M. to ask for all of Fisk's clothes, which request was granted. At 7 P. M., they were sent for and there being no prospect of agreeing, the Court took a recess until 10 ... to-morrow. It is understood that eight of the jury were for murder in the first degree and four for manslaughter.

New York News.

New York, July 13.—Herr Strauss and family sailed for Bremen to-day. He was accompanied to the steamer by a number of friends. He expressed himself much gratified at the reception he had met with in America.

A gang of strikers this morning brutally assaulted the carpenters at work on a building on Forty seventh street.

Pardon by the President

Albany, July 13.—The President has pardoned S. F. Sherman, convicted of causing the death of Henrietta Potter, in Washington, by producing abortion.

Democrats at Chappaqua

Chappaqua, July 13.—The Democratic Executive Committee and others, visited Horace Greeley, at his farm to-day. A dinner was served at 1 P. M., after which Greeley addressed a few friendly words to the people assembled—about 500 in number. It was simply a social gathering. Short speeches were made by several Baltimore delegates. The affair was quiet, neither Doolittle nor Schell were present.

Instructions by the Court in Stokes' Case.

New York, July 13.—Judge Ingraham instructed the jury in Stokes' case to-day, as follows:

After reading the evidence, if you believe when the prisoner fired and inflicted a mortal wound, he feared great bodily harm and danger to his life, and that there was great danger of its being accomplished, he was justified in his act, and you will find accordingly. If you do not believe the act was justifiable, that it was done in sudden heat of passion and without any previous intent to kill, or that the prisoner might have avoided the conflict by retreating from danger, you will find him guilty of manslaughter in the third degree. If you believe the wound inflicted was not mortal, and that it was subsequent treatment that caused his death, then you must acquit him, but if you find that he was not justified before shooting, he having a premeditated design to take life, whether such design was formed before or after arriving at the hotel, and that the wound so given caused the death of the deceased, then you will find the prisoner guilty of murder in the first degree.

Detroit "Free Press" Changes Hands

Detroit, July 13.—The Free Press to-morrow contains a valedictory and announcement of a change in the proprietorship, and that it will hereafter heartily support the Baltimore nominees.

Crops Injured.

Nashville, July 13.—Much wheat in the crops just harvested is badly injured by continued rain. Cotton is also injured in Middle Tennessee and northern Alabama by rains.

Destructive Fire in Michigan

Detroit, July 13.—The fire at Alpina last night was one of the most destructive which ever visited any little town in the State. Every house in the town was wooden, and although all the fire engines were on the ground, all their efforts to stay the progress of the fire were unavailing until three half blocks in the business part of the town were destroyed. The saddest feature was the loss of life. Mrs. Westbrook, a milliner, was burned to death in the street in front of her store, though every effort was made to save her. Her son, George, endeavoring to save her, was burned so badly that he died to-day. The remains of two others, supposed to be men, were found in the ruins to-day. A sailor named Kelly, and G. R. Westly, engineer of Barlow's mill, were badly injured and doubts are entertained of their recovery. Alpina contains over twenty mills which are the main stay of the place. None of them were burned.

Political Meeting.

Nashville, July 13.—A joint Liberal Republican and Democratic ratification meeting is called here for the 18th inst.

Jersey City Police

New York, July 13.—The Attorney General of New Jersey has declared the offices of Police Commissioners of Jersey City vacant, and the Governor will fill them temporarily.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Mail Service Extended.

Washington, July 13.—The Postmaster General has ordered an extension of the mail service on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad from Colorado Springs to Pueblo, 45 miles, commencing July 22d.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Made Cardinals

London, July 13.—The Echo, this afternoon published a private letter said to have been written by a person high in authority at the Vatican, stating that the Pope on the 1st of November last, All Saint's Day, bestowed a Cardinal's hat on the Archbishop of London, and 'Westminster,' the Archbishop of Paris, and Most Reverend Martin John Spaulding, now deceased, who was then Archbishop of Baltimore.

NEVADA

Reno, July 14.—During a thunder storm yesterday afternoon a cloud burst between Verdi and Reno on the C. P. R. R., tearing away and covering the track for nearly a quarter of a mile. The train due at midnight last night has not arrived but is expected to arrive within two or three hours. No trains have been able to pass the spot yet. The track will probably be cleared to-night.

A magnificently dressed Hindoo, with gold embroidered turban, shawl around his waist, zouave pants, etc., created quite an excitement on Montgomery street to-day. His rich costume and dignified bearing causing him to be mistaken for a Prince of the blood royal at least. It has turned out that he was servant to an English gentleman who arrived on the ... yesterday, and the excitement quickly subsided.

Samuel Platt, Esq., better known as the 'Citizen Sam Platt,' a man of fine intellect and education and peculiarly pungent wit, but very erratic, died here this morning after a brief illness of dropsy of the stomach. He was a native of Delaware and a law student with Hon. John M. Clayton. He was widely known for his eccentricities, wit and kindness of heart. Some years since his brother committed suicide. Soon after his favorite daughter, a peculiarly gifted and interesting young lady, fell from a swing and was fatally injured, and soon after his wife, a noble woman, died. Under these accumulated afflictions he broke down completely, and of late he had frequently avowed his desire to be done with life as soon as possible.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

Los Angeles, July 13.—In view of the expected arrival of Col. Scott of the Texas Railroad, on the ... the Common Council appointed a committee of three to meet him when the steamer arrives and try to induce him to come to Los Angeles.

The San Bernardino ... of yesterday says that on Wednesday up to 12 o'clock heavy showers of rain fell, ... ing the earth a good, thorough wetting. The corn and vegetable crop will doubtless be greatly benefitted, but it is feared that much grain in the valley will be injured by the rain.

Our Washington county correspondent says: The Good Templars' picnic at Hillsboro on the 13th was a pleasurable affair. About 9 o'clock A. M. the people began to assemble from all parts of the county. After a short session of the county Lodge, and some public exercises, the crowd adjourned to the fine picnic grounds on Mr. A. D. Fitch's farm, adjoining town, where they found tables and seats all nicely shaded by natural bowers and swings arranged for the accommodation of those that enjoy the sport and pleasure of a "toss" through the air. The crowd abandoned themselves to the pleasures of the hour. We understand that some disappointment was felt in not having the speakers ... that were engaged, but this was made up by the pleasure of a ramble and frolic in the grove. The Good Templars have done a good work in Washington county. What with the Good Templars and church members, Washington county is truly a temperate county. A gent ... traveling through Oregon remarked lately that the people of Washington county were, in his opinion, far ahead of any other county in the State in agricultural improvements—farms were kept in better repair, and a more abundant supply of ... was used."

The Chicago Times (Democratic) says: "The fact is that Tammany is as corrupt and its purposes as dishonest and vile as ever. Tammany steps forward as the most officious champion of Mr. Greeley, because it recognizes in him, if not a Tammanyite by nature, a man whom Tammany expects to be able to use for its infamous purposes. Next to a villain of their own gang, the men through whom villains can best achieve their ends are those weak in principle, infirm of purpose, and imbecile of character. Such men easily become the tools of rogues."

DR. ABORN
HAS RETURNED TO PORTLAND.
Evidences of His Success while on Puget Sound.
[From the Morning Herald.]
We notice the return of Dr. Aborn who has been paying a professional visit to the Sound country where he has performed a great number of miraculous cures and operations. The Olympia Transcript speaks of him in the following terms: "We call attention to the cards in to-day's paper, in reference to the treatment and skill of Dr. Aborn. He has been on the Sound but a few weeks, but in that time he has given such great benefit to many of our citizens that it is particularly worthy of note."

MIRACULOUS CURE
John L. Clark, of Olympia, who has been so severely afflicted for years and considered hopeless, is now fast regaining his health under the treatment of Dr. Aborn. The following is Mr. Clark's statement concerning himself:
TO THE PUBLIC
For two years I have been severely afflicted with Catarrh, Throat, Bronchial and Lung Disease, and Affection of the Stomach. Have been treated by ... different physicians without any benefit; expended over $5,000; had been given up to die. Two weeks ago I placed myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, and to my great joy and surprise I have improved wonderfully, which all my friends can readily see. I can now eat and relish my food and my stomach is healed. Have gained ... fully in strength and flesh, and I now confidently entertain hope that, under Dr. Aborn's skillful treatment, I shall be entirely cured.
JOHN L. CLARK,
Blacksmith, Wagonmaker and Prop'r Olympia Foundry.
Olympia, W. T., July 1, 1872.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE.
[From the Olympia Tribune.]
Elsewhere in our local columns will be found a letter from Mr. John L. Clark, testifying to the ... skill of Dr. Aborn. Read it. Mr. Clark is among the best known of our citizens and the fact of his having been in poor health for some years is equally well known to many of his acquaintances. The testimony he bears to the success of the Doctor's treatment in his case is of no doubtful character, and should add largely to the reputation of the latter as a physician.

EYES TREATED
[From the Olympia Tribune.]
This morning Dr. Aborn performed a neat surgical operation upon the eyes of a lady from Seattle—Mrs. Shoudy—who, we are informed, has been nearly blind for ten years. By this operation and the Doctor's skillful treatment she will have her eyesight perfectly and permanently restored. He also performed a similar operation upon Mr. Barnes, a resident of Tumwater, with a like happy result.

ANOTHER EDITORIAL FROM THE OLYMPIA DAILY TRIBUNE, JULY 5.
DRAWING TO A CLOSE—The visit of Dr. Aborn. To-morrow will be his last day in Olympia. During his brief sojourn in our midst he has effected some miraculous cures and performed several surgical operations, the success of which have materially augmented his reputation for skill. The persons who have been relieved by Dr. Aborn will gratefully remember his visit to the Sound, which it is hoped he will soon repeat.

[From the Seattle Dispatch.]
Dr. Aborn has spent a week in this city, during which time he has treated many cases of chronic diseases of the eye, ear and throat with almost miraculous success—restoring sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf and speech to the almost dumb, causing the hope to the afflicted that he will soon favor them with another visit.

RELIABLE HOME EVIDENCE OF DR. ABORN'S SKILL.—John Webster, blacksmith and ex-member of our Legislature, now a resident of Seattle and a candidate for Probate Judge, publishes a testimonial in to-day's issue of our paper testifying that after having been deaf for over 20 years he has been restored to hearing.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DEAFNESS
Seattle, June 25, 1872.
To ... My ...
I hereby certify that I have been under the treatment of Dr. Aborn for deafness and that he has almost entirely restored my hearing. I had been quite deaf for over twenty years, and in one ear had not heard the tick of a watch for the above time, and the second day after he commenced treatment I could hear very plain and I feel like a new man.

MONDAY MORNING, [illegible] 1872

The Apostates' Tableau

We have [illegible] telegraphic [illegible] of an affecting [illegible] at New [illegible] President of the [illegible] accompanied [illegible] informed [illegible] view between Doolittle and [illegible] scribed as a most moving [illegible] Voices grew husky [illegible] were in requisition, and all the [illegible] acting necessary for a well [illegible] were on hand.

Mr Greeley has often had dealings with Mr Doolittle before. When Doolittle apostatized, went over to Andy Johnson and voted in the Senate for Johnson's acquittal, Greeley poured out on Doolittle's head unnumbered vials of terrible wrath. He declared that Doolittle, as well as Trumbull, had been bribed to commit perjury, and had continued in the Presidential office the blackest scoundrel in American history.

Nor was this an end of Mr. Greeley's compliments to Mr. Doolittle. The following vigorous statement of the latter's political character came out in an editorial in the Tribune a few months after the last Presidential election.

> Acute, adroit, and early schooled in the arts of the self-seeking politician, he has for years done his "level best" against the party which has so honored and trusted him. He worked like a beaver, with tongue and pen, to defeat General Grant, and his labors were crowned with the largest Republican vote and the most sweeping Republican victory ever realized in Wisconsin. We believe the majority there would have been twenty thousand had he remained faithful; it was swelled to twenty-four thousand one hundred and fifty-two by the intensity of the popular detestation of Doolittle, his works and his ways.

Last year Doolittle was Democratic candidate for Governor of Wisconsin. He was defeated, of course. During the campaign Greeley renewed his attacks upon him, denounced him as an apostate and a dishonored man, and expressed lively satisfaction on learning of his defeat.

But the philosopher of Chappaqua himself has now turned aside into the path of apostasy which has been traveled and worn deep by Doolittle and many other pilgrims to the shades of political oblivion. Greeley, like Doolittle, has become a "self-seeking politician," and is "doing his 'level best' against the party which has honored and trusted him." And as if to signalize such an apostasy, to render its lesson impressive, and to make the vengeance of history complete, Doolittle is chosen as the man to wait on Greeley and inform him of his nomination at Baltimore, whereupon Greeley makes a speech announcing his acceptance and pledging himself to follow the "works and ways" of Doolittle, which Greeley has himself affirmed have sunk Doolittle in a fathomless depth of "popular detestation!" Following in Doolittle's footsteps, can Greeley hope to avoid Doolittle's fate? Can a political movement like this, so strikingly inconsistent, so shamefully hypocritical, so obviously dishonest, so clearly without any good reason to support it, meet with any success? Owing its origin wholly to the ambition of apostates and the rancor of renegades, whose "works and ways" Greeley has described as in the case of Doolittle, and deriving its chief support from the "rebel element" of the South and the Tammany Ring, the movement will not commend itself to the judgment of the country.

Ex Secretary May.

It is asserted by a journal at Salem that the OREGONIAN has defended and excused the peculations and embezzlements of ex-Secretary May. Nothing could be more unfounded. When it was whispered round last year that May was a defaulter the OREGONIAN was the first paper in the State to demand an investigation, and to insist that if he was found guilty he should be punished. The demands of this paper impelled the present State officials who were holding back the case with a view of using it in the election to take earlier action than they had intended. May was brought here, and proceedings were begun against him. But these proceedings were clumsily and bunglingly managed from the first. The prosecution was in singularly incompetent hands. After boggling over the whole business for many months, all the cases were dismissed. While we have criticised the officials for their incompetency, and have remarked upon the termination of a prosecution which was begun by the authorities for political purposes only, we have never attempted to excuse May, and have never questioned his moral guilt. That he applied considerable sums of money belonging to the State to his own uses cannot be doubted. On what legal technicalities he was acquitted we do not precisely know, nor do we care to be informed. Enough, that he embezzled the State's money. Of this there can be no question. Nobody can pretend to justify the act. He owes his immunity partly to defects in the law and partly, we suppose, to his known loose ideas about money matters. In regard to money he is considered where he is known as weak and irresponsible, and such is the peculiarity of his character that an act which, in another would be criminal embezzlement, would be deemed a venial offense in him. His sureties, we suppose, will now be proceeded against on their bond.

The question of "indirect claims" has been settled after all in accordance with the proposition of our Government. That proposition simply was that the question of these claims should go to the tribunal of arbitration for a decision. The United States demanded only this, and was willing to abide the result. Before the arrival of the supplemental treaty at Geneva, the tribunal of arbitration had considered the question and decided the indirect claims inadmissible. So the supplemental treaty and the controversy about indirect claims fell to the ground.

Much disappointment is felt in France because it is ascertained that by a clause of the treaty, although certain districts are to be gradually evacuated by German troops, Germany has the right to maintain the full strength of her army of occupation in France until the war indemnity is fully liquidated. By the first of March, 1874, $[illegible] are to be paid. The final payment of $[illegible] is to be made in March, 1875, when the Germans will evacuate all the French departments. It is presumed by this [illegible] the Treasury of France will also be [illegible]

August Belmont made a speech [illegible] the Baltimore Convention saying that his party was in favor of economy and a [illegible] in every official occupation, and a civil service reform which should begin with the Presidency. Belmont is a leading member of the Tammany gang. He is not [illegible] reform that begins [illegible]

Political Sentiment

Thousands of instances of individual and collective statements of the repudiation of Greeley by those who have been counted on to support him fill the columns of Eastern newspapers, and they are daily increasing. We present samples herewith:

At a meeting of the Democratic General [illegible] county, New York, on [illegible] a resolution was unanimously [illegible] that it is apparent that corrupt [illegible] had been entered into with [illegible] demagogues for hypothecating to [illegible] Democrats, with the Cincinnati nomination, support which, it is said, they declare, [illegible] standard Democratic principles.

The Chicago Times of June 27th printed a list of the names of fifty-three prominent old-line Democrats of Freeport, Illinois, who will support Greeley under no circumstances whatever. This is the document which these gentlemen sign, and which is only one of hundreds which are in circulation among men who cannot change their politics at the mere whim of managing demagogues:

> We, the undersigned, members of the Democratic party of Stephenson county, State of Illinois, still believing in Democratic principles and adhering to our Democratic faith, declare that under no circumstances will we vote for Horace Greeley for President. If others are willing to sell out their principles, we declare that we are not, and if sold out at Baltimore, those who sell us or our votes to the support of the Greeley party cannot deliver our votes.

The Chicago Times, the most fearless and out-spoken Democratic paper in the country, has broken ranks, and cries out "Democrats may as well go to the Grant party as the Greeley party." It declares that the Baltimore Convention was packed by "Liberal Republicans" in the interest of Greeley, "whose nomination is the disbandment of the Democratic party, leaving its members and its journals free to support whomsoever they please." It further declares that the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore, not being done by Democrats, will place no person holding Democratic principles under the slightest obligation to cast his vote for the nominee.

Here is what a strong Democratic paper of Pennsylvania, the Williamsburg Standard, has to say:

> Horace Greeley cannot be elected unless he gets the solid vote of the Democratic party. One million Democratic voters have registered an oath that they will never break, that they will never vote for any man representing the monstrosities of the Republican party during the years of war and desolation.

The weight of the German press of the country, both Republican and Democratic, is against Greeley. The defection of the German Democrats has alarmed the Greeleyites, and every effort has been made by them to secure their support, but so far with very little effect. A candid review of the political movements of this class of our population, as shown by the spirit of the German press, makes it clear that Greeley will not receive the votes of as many German Democrats as Governor Seymour did in 1868. In Indiana only one German Democratic paper supports Greeley and Hendricks. The Courier, a German daily of Cincinnati, counted on for Greeley, has declared for Grant.

One of the most influential papers in urging the union of the opposition to Grant was the Cincinnati Commercial. This great paper has come out for Grant, disgusted with Greeley and his associations. The Detroit Post, a steady supporter of the Cincinnati movement, has declared in the strongest terms for Grant since the Baltimore Convention.

Brick Pomeroy and his Democrat refuse to support Greeley. He declares that the "Sage" will never be President. Likewise the New York Day-Book, the "white man's paper," repudiates Greeley, and participates in the movement for a new Convention.

Horace Greeley on the Democratic Party. POINT WHEREVER YOU WILL TO AN ELECTION DISTRICT WHICH YOU WILL PRONOUNCE MORALLY ROTTEN—GIVEN UP IN A GREAT PART TO DEBAUCHERY AND VICE, WHOSE VOTERS SUBSIST MAINLY BY KEEPING POLICY OFFICES, GAMBLING-HOUSES, GROG-SHOPS, AND DARKER DENS OF INFAMY—AND THAT DISTRICT WILL BE FOUND GIVING A LARGE MAJORITY FOR THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

> For the last three years the Democratic party has plainly seen the open and shameless efforts of the Grant Administration to strike down the last vestige of popular liberty, by the passage of laws which virtually place the suffrage of freemen under the control and dictation of the Federal Government and the domination of its military power, and in this living emergency, when a free elective franchise—the very corner-stone of all Republican liberty—was threatened with displacement, we have called upon the liberty-loving men of all parties and creeds to hasten to our support in its defense.—Oregon City Enterprise.

And you have taken for your candidate the man who demanded most loudly the passage of every one of these laws, and who has expressed perfect satisfaction with their operation and results. This is proof how shamelessly absurd and false your position is.

The Herald, though forced to enroll itself under the banner of Chappaqua, nevertheless hungers and thirsts for a straight Democratic ticket. It says plaintively, that it "regrets that the Convention could not see the way clear to nominate an old line Democrat," and "in common with others, it regrets the necessity that controlled their action." Evidently our neighbor is in a mood to repeat from the Elegy this stanza:

> For who to dumb forgetfulness a prey,
> This pleasing, anxious being e'er resigned?
> Left the warm precincts of the cheerful day
> Nor cast one longing, lingering look behind?

Our Democratic neighbor wants to oppose some of the last sayings of Greeley, such as are a month old or so, against the whole course of the previous utterances of his life. This won't do. Since Greeley's head has been turned by a hope of the Presidency, it is evident that "the last state of that man is worse than the first." Hence his latest utterances won't pass current.

The Democratic Era (East Portland) says "Protection is the curse of the American people. It benefits the rich that the poor may suffer, and fills the coffers of the wealthy by emptying the pockets of the laboring classes." Yet you have for your candidate for the Presidency the man who stands at the head of the protectionist school of the United States.

Greeley says he is only a "humble farmer," and he invites his Democratic supporters to visit him at his farm and see him [illegible] Here is a promising development of [illegible] known to demagogues. The Democratic candidate expects the country to be captivated with this theatrical wood-chopping.

It is confessed by the East Portland Era that victory with Greeley would be an abandonment of all which the Democratic party has so long contended for. It thinks that [illegible] the defeat of Grant would "hardly be a sufficient [illegible] for the Democracy to surrender their existence and principles."

OREGON.

Three cases of small pox are reported at Eugene City.

James Barkley was arrested at Jacksonville last week, for selling liquor to soldiers.

The salary of the Superintendent of Schools in Lane county has been raised to $[illegible] per annum.

The news at Eugene City is [illegible] many [illegible] because the passengers on the cars [illegible]

Wm. [illegible], a [illegible] saloon keeper, [illegible] died with apoplexy on Saturday, the [illegible] inst, while conversing with a friend.

There are several aspirants for the Postmastership at Amity, Yamhill county. Hon. [illegible] Getchell seems to have the advantage.

The Merchants' and Farmers' Navigation Co.'s steamer Enterprise now makes weekly trips from Scottsburg to Gardiner and Smith's river.

A Durham bull owned by W. W. Baker, at La Grande, weighs nineteen hundred and eighty pounds, and only a three year old. So says the Sentinel.

Burglaries are reported in Salem, Eugene, Sheridan, Dallas and Dalles City. Proceeds generally household goods, a little money, provisions and whisky.

Jacob Powell, a Baptist preacher known to almost everybody in Oregon, more for his eccentricities than his education, is said to have become a raving maniac.

James Morris burst a blood vessel and dropped dead in Salem last Saturday. He was a native of Ireland, aged about twenty eight years, and had been in Oregon since January.

The Corvallis Gazette is informed that Mr. Strahan will decline to take the seat in the Oregon Senate which the Democrats of the Legislature gave him two years ago.

The editor of the Dallas Republican took a short ride the other day, and saw three new school houses, several dwellings, and a large number of barns, granaries, etc., in course of erection.

Jackson county has an empty jail. Our country exchanges often publish the fact that there are no criminals in their county jails. Why don't they tell us how many are on the outside that ought to be in.

John Blattner's house on Rich Gulch, Jackson county, was burned to the ground, Saturday, July 6th, and everything therein consumed, while he was at work in his claim. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Farmer says that Messrs. Titcomb and Williams, of San Francisco, are now making dies for striking gold and silver medals for the use of the Oregon Agricultural Society, as special premiums at their next Annual Fair.

The Dalles salmon fisheries are estimated to be worth at least $1,000,000, and the Mountaineer is in favor of reopening the treaty by which the whites got possession of them, and paying the Indians something like a fair price for them.

A little girl, daughter of an emigrant just arrived in Wasco county, was bitten by a rattlesnake last week. As soon as the fact was known the parents sucked the virus from the wound and filled the child with whisky, and she soon recovered.

From the Salem Mercury: "We learn from a gentleman who has just returned from the Santiam mines that prospects are flattering, as good ore in large quantities is being unearthed. Work is being kept up night and day by different shifts of men."

The Mountaineer says: "Mr. Thomas Gordon, who lives on the Deschutes river, informs us that his fruit crop is going to be very large this season—especially peaches. Peaches are going to be peaches this year, as Jack Frost put a veto on nearly all the orchards in this vicinity."

At a late term of the County Court of Lane county, the clerk was instructed to notify the Secretary of the O. & C. R. R. Co. that unless the county roads damaged by said railroad was repaired by the September term, 1872, of this court, the District Attorney would be instructed to institute a suit for damages against said company.

A correspondent at Roseburg, under date of the 12th, writes that an attempt was made at that place by the Democracy to get up a Greeley demonstration, with anvils and powder, but the thing proved an utter failure. After firing a few blasts the enthusiasm fizzled out and the small crowd disbanded. Greeleyism don't go down easily with the Bodrockers in Oregon.

From the Plaindealer we gather the following Douglas county items: "William Bonebrake fell from a house while assisting A. J. Bellieu, and broke his collar bone. On the 7th inst. a daughter of John Strader was severely hurt by being run over by a cow. A lad named Richard Raper, aged twelve years, son of R. A. Raper, was thrown from a horse and severely injured."

The Plaindealer says: "Coos county now contains a population of 2,500. There are three steam saw mills which cut an average of 60,000 feet per day, and at least 10,000 tons of coal are shipped to San Francisco annually. The trade supplies about thirty vessels. The coal and lumber trade is rapidly increasing, and the agricultural lands, heretofore neglected, are being rapidly settled up with an enterprising class of farmers. For all these settlers there is only provided a weekly mail by the way of Oakland, Scottsburg and Gardiner, which reaches Empire City in three days from Oakland. The commercial interests of the bay have suffered on this account to such an extent that a telegraph line will soon be constructed to connect with Roseburg."

THE TERRITORIES.

A young fellow exploded a torpedo at Olympia the other day, holding it in his hand. He was picked up near the spot.

One would infer from an article in the Vancouver Register that the editor thinks the best "Indian civilizer" is powder and lead.

Small pox has broken out in a family named Campbell at Union Ridge, Clarke county, Washington Territory. Several of the family have it, but it is in a mild form.

The Utah Northern Railroad is building rapidly into Montana. Twenty five miles are already completed. It connects with the Central Pacific at Bear river crossing.

Diggins is Marshal of Olympia. He tried to arrest one Trout the other day, and in doing so Diggins exceeded his authority by kicking Trout, for which the Marshal (Diggins) was fined $5 and costs.

Father Mans, of Vancouver, whom we mentioned a few days ago as having been placed over the interests of the Catholic Church at Port Townsend, will also have charge of the church in Ports Gamble, Ludlow, Discovery and Seabeck, and as far down as the Cape, including Port Dungeness and Whidby Island.

A correspondent writing from Idaho says that this Territory is certainly the home of the beavers, and I believe in all the world besides there are not so many beavers as there are in Idaho. Every stream seems to swarm with them, and they may be seen frequently in the waters. The statement, often made, that they never show themselves, is all a mistake.

The Quiz says that it is the [illegible] President, the national debt has been reduced $[illegible] We risk nothing in saying [illegible] with an honest and intelligent administration of our finances, and in view of the immense taxes paid by the people, the national debt ought, in the same time, to have been reduced more than twice that sum.—Herald.

Of course you "risk nothing" in saying this. On any subject relating to the Administration you have no reputation for candor and accuracy to put at hazard. It is an approved Democratic habit to rely on clumsily devised fables.

The Olympia Tribune of the 11th says: On the completion of existing contracts for the present season, the Northern Pacific Railroad Company will have in operation five hundred and seventeen miles of its main line, while an additional seven hundred and [illegible] miles [illegible] being located and prepared for contract. The [illegible] division to be completed this year, will [illegible] Lake Superior with the Missouri river, [illegible] permanent [illegible] the traffic of the upper Missouri, Montana and northern Idaho.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

MONDAY MORNING JULY 15 1872

CITY.

NEW [illegible] March Mr Joseph Peters [illegible] invented and secured the patent right for a new tanning process known as Peters' Eureka Tanning Process. Mr J W Peters formerly a brother, having been let into the mysteries of the secret process several months ago established a small tannery in the southern portion of the city. Saturday we paid an inspecting visit to the place to make notes and take observations. The business is carried on in the old way in some particulars, and differs very widely in others. The new process embodies a few simple chemical principles which even a child can comprehend. The articles required can be obtained in this country and are purely vegetable. It is probably the most powerful vegetable astringent known to science, for by its operation raw hide can be converted to leather in an incredibly short time. By the old process it requires about three months to thoroughly tan sheep and deer pelts or light calf skins, kip from four to five months harness leather from six to nine months and sole leather from ten to fourteen months. This new process will convert raw hide to good leather so rapidly that, when its virtues are once known the old and tedious way will forever be discarded. All kinds of glove leather and fur skins can be dressed in from thirteen minutes to twenty four hours, shoe leather from four to eight days, harness leather from ten to twenty days and sole from twenty to forty days. The cost of tanning one deer skin is from four to eight cents. All that is required to validate the work is one dollar's worth of tools and a tub or barrel. From an examination of the [illegible] on to be seen at the establishment, they appear like the best oak tanned leather of a bright, red brown color smooth and perfectly soft and impervious to water. While the new process produces certain chemical changes which absorbs and eats up the glutinous matter in the hide, in so short a time, it seemingly does not destroy the strength or elasticity of the leather, it has all the characteristics of the best oak or hemlock cured leather. A strong solution is made of the vegetable chemical employed into which the hides are immersed, and raised occasionally and exposed to the air for a few minutes. This is repeated until the skin is pronounced [illegible]. The usual means are employed to remove the hair from the hides—a strong solution of water and lime—but the "bating" process in [illegible] an entirely new system. There is always a disagreeable stench arising from a tanyard conducted on the present plan, but the new process is entirely free from creating a nuisance, the [illegible] used acting as an odor destroyer. No bark of any kind is used in the new system of tanning, and the articles required can be obtained [illegible] as cheaply. Although there has been [illegible] new tanning processes introduced at different times, for some defect or other, such inventions have never become generally used. From a [illegible] inspection of the Eureka mode, there seems to exist no well grounded reason why it should not entirely supplant the old method. The only [illegible] about the success of the mode is that it may injure the wearing qualities of the leather. This doubt can only be satisfactorily dispelled by thoroughly testing the leather tanned by the new method. The invention claims that the [illegible] and durability of the leather is not injured, but rather increased, and the trials made so far have resulted favorably to the new plan. If this objection is overcome, there can be no reason why the invention is not a complete success. The [illegible] of the age constantly aims in its results to secure cheapness, and accomplish the greatest amount in the shortest possible time. The new invention claims to include these advantages. Mr. J W Peters started for the East on the [illegible] last Saturday. His object is to perfect the patent right for Europe. On his return he will be ready to dispose of State, county town and family rights for California, Oregon Arizona, Washington Territory and Alaska.

ON THE WAY.—The steamer John L Stephens sailed for this port from San Francisco last Saturday. She has on board the following passengers: Gen Jos Hooker and servant, Col Mason and wife, Mrs E C Mason, two children and servant, Mrs Taylor and children, Wm Savier and wife, D D Bunnell and wife, H M Warren and wife, R H Grover and wife, M J Kinney, T Rosen, M Bleckarsee, L B Andrews, J H Kloss, Mrs Harley, S P Randolph, E O'Keane and wife, Mrs H O'Keane, Mrs Jordan and 3 children, H [illegible], Jr, W K Badger, E B Huntington, Lieut [illegible] U S A, Lieut G N Evans, Miss M Plummer, Miss Lorie Goodhue, Miss C E Conant, [illegible] E Pulworth and 2 children, A H Martin, Mrs A Shaw, Mrs M J Shaw, H C Boswick, C [illegible], Chas F Speck, Jos Bliss, D P Hendrick, B B Baldwin, N P Newton and wife, Miss F [illegible], B E Dodson, A Decosmos, J B Kanoff and wife, Miss E Haelston, C W Herman and C M Phillips.

AMOUNT ON HAND.—Mr. B G Whitehouse, who was authorized by the General Committee to audit all bills incurred during the late celebration, and pay the same by check, has settled up all the outstanding claims. The following is a [illegible] of the receipts and expenses of the celebration. Received by appropriation from the city, $1,150, by subscriptions from the citizens $2,971 12; total, 4,121 12, amount paid for music, $1,013 50 fire works, $860 to Liberty car, $175 04, printing, $175 50 grounds, $14 65 [illegible], $120 carriages, $153 75 refreshments [illegible]; total, $3 849 07. A balance still remains in the hands which belongs to the Celebration fund and can be used next year. There are also about $100 worth of materials subject to the [illegible] in 1873. The celebration was a grand affair, very well conducted, and the Committee have managed the finances with economy and good judgment.

OUT SAILING.—W P Burke's little sloop, the Annie Devlin was out sailing yesterday. She was not properly ballasted, and was under a light press of canvas, but notwithstanding this, she skimmed over the placid bosom of the "big Wallamet" like a scared coyote, and as a thing of [illegible], was a success. From what the Annie [illegible] has given us of her superior sailing qualities, we feel assured that when in complete sailing trim, she can get away with any craft in her line. Her rigging was gaily decorated with pennant and streamers while conspicuously floating at the mast head was the harp and shamrock of Erin and the Stars and Stripes.

AJAX.—The steamer Ajax sailed for San Francisco on Saturday evening carrying away the following passengers: Hon J D Fay and son, Bennie Schuyler, Maggie Schuyler, Julia Schuyler, D F Harrington, B Selling, J W Peters, Miss A Burchardt, H Wolsey, O Ryan, Geo N Quick, D E Spencer, J H Lotus and wife, Wm H Wheeler, Chas A Wheeler, Jacob Levy, G B Waldron, Louis Sohns, S J Hymes, C F Clare, N W Randall, Mrs Spencer, John Patterson, W T Culbertson, Stephen Venard, Dr Linderman, W, F & Co's messenger and 20 in steerage.

GEN JOSEPH HOOKER.—"Fighting Joe Hooker" is among the passengers on the John L Stephens. He comes to revisit his old home in Oregon before the days when the little unpleasantness down South required his hand and brain in defense of the Government. Oregon should extend to him that measure of welcome to which his many gallant and distinguished services entitle him.

TRACK LAYING.—We are informed that track laying was commenced on the west side on last Thursday. The track has been laid over three miles beyond Forest Grove, and is being pushed rapidly ahead. From the present indications cars will probably be running daily to the [illegible] of the Yamhill by the first of September.

MOVED.—The steam paddy was being moved last week to another cut beyond where it has been in operation for the last month. During the week work was suspended and no earth was brought down the track but the paddy will be in full operation this morning and war on Couch's Lake will be resumed.

COURT DECISIONS.—We learn by circular that a volume of the decisions rendered by Judge M P Deady in the United States District Court for the District of Oregon will be issued in San Francisco some time during August.

LUNCH BASKET.—Paul [illegible] opposite the Postoffice, has received [illegible] which is [illegible] variety of willow ware.

IN THE RIVER.—The [illegible] Hong Kong is in the river. The [illegible] from Astoria yesterday passed her at [illegible] setting up.

PERSONALS.—Captain [illegible] and Frank Hodgkins of the Salem [illegible] Mrs M J Barry and Samuel E May are now in the city.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

[illegible] ANNIVERSARY SERMON BY THE [illegible]

Last evening a large congregation assembled at the M E Church the occasion being a sermon and address setting forth the [illegible] work and objects of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. A powerful sermon was delivered by Rev Mr Medhurst. A liberal subscription amounting to $700 was made for the benefit of the Association. After the delivery of Mr M's sermon the President Mr W Jackson submitted the following report showing the objects, purposes, work and present condition of the Association:

Friends of the Young Men's Christian Association.—We meet to-night for the fourth time since organizing our Association to consult with regard to its welfare and it becomes my duty to report its progress in the past year and its prospects of future usefulness for the year to come upon which we have already entered.

First—What have we done and what do we propose to do?

Our Library and Reading Rooms have been kept open from 8 A M to 10 P M every day in the year.

The number of persons visiting the Rooms will average about thirty, most of whom are young men and strangers coming to our city.

The amount of good done by providing such pleasant quarters for those who have availed themselves of its privileges we are unable to say but we trust much good has resulted to those who have spent their evenings in our Rooms. And on behalf of the members of our Association, I cordially invite all young men and strangers coming to our city to make our Rooms their home in which to spend their leisure hours and let me assure them that the hand of welcome will ever be extended to greet them.

The lease of our Rooms which we have occupied for the past three years free of charge, expired on the 1st of March at which time a Committee waited upon Mr W S Ladd expressing to him our acknowledgments for so kindly furnishing us the use of such valuable rooms and desiring to know upon what terms the Association could secure the rooms in future. Mr L has not extended the lease for any definite time, but said that we could remain on the same terms for the present, and when he desired us to vacate he would give us one month's notice.

We trust that the day is not far distant when we will be able to erect such a building as shall not only meet all our wants but shall be a credit to our rapidly growing city.

One of the most important features of the work of the Association during the past year has been the relief of the sick and destitute. Over one hundred persons have received charity. Whole families have been cared for. Two hundred and thirty-one meals and lodgings have been furnished. In many instances we have assisted persons who were sick by procuring a physician, and paying for medicine, board, etc.

The calls for charity continually increased and at the close of the year we found that all of our means were exhausted and the Association several hundred dollars in debt, and while trusting we have done a good work for the Master in relieving so many with our limited means, we could have accomplished much more if the necessary funds had been at our disposal.

The charity bestowed by the Association has been a work in which much labor was required, the most of which was performed by our Secretary, who has devoted nearly his entire time to the work.

It required a great deal of caution on our part having to investigate each case that applied for relief, and with the most careful investigation we found even then that in some instances we relieved those who were unworthy.

The experience of the past year will be of great advantage to us should we conclude to continue that work.

The Ladies' Relief Society has cooperated with us, we trust, to our mutual advantage and they have certainly manifested that Christian spirit which should ever actuate all benevolent associations, and we bid them God speed in their noble self sacrificing work and may they ever receive that generous support which they so much deserve.

Upon proper investigation the County Commissioners have come to our relief in such cases as properly belonged to the county, and to them as well as to those who have so generously subscribed towards carrying forward this relief work, the thanks of the Association are due.

The missionary work of the Association has not received that attention which its importance demands, owing to the fact that so much of the time of the Secretary has been taken up with the relief work, that he has been unable to devote much of his time to this matter.

The city has been districted, religious publications and tracts distributed, and although we have not been able to see any immediate benefits resulting from it yet we trust the seed sown has not been in vain.

We hope this branch will receive more attention in the coming year.

When we consider that so small a portion of our population attend any place of public worship it must be evident to every mind upon reflection, that there is a wide field for usefulness in this direction.

A noonday prayer meeting has been held in the rooms of the Association from the first of January until the present time and although it has not been as largely attended by our members as could have been desired, yet from present appearances we are in hopes to sustain it for some time to come. Open air meetings under the auspices of the Association have recently been commenced, and we hope to make their influence felt for good in carrying the Gospel to those who are never seen within our churches and who could only be reached in some such way and we desire the co operation of the Christian people and we think with your united efforts there can be no question as regards their success.

The Association numbers fifty two—forty seven active members two associate and three life members. Seventeen new members have been added to our numbers during the past year including three gentlemen constituted life members viz Messrs Lull, Corbett and Condon.

During the year the Constitution has been so amended as to admit ladies to active and associate membership, and we hope to have their co operation in our Christian work.

The Association has given a course of lectures which were not only very instructive but resulted in a financial benefit, the net proceeds being about $200. To those gentlemen who so kindly volunteered their services and to our Corresponding Secretary Mr F K Arnold who has done much toward making the features a success financially the thanks of the Association are due.

FINANCES

The finances of the Association do not compare very favorably with what they were one year ago. At that time the balance in the treasury was $219 70 while the present Treasurer's report shows an indebtedness of something like $300.

The Association is under very many obligations to the local press of this city—the DAILY OREGONIAN, Bulletin and Herald and the Christian Advocate ever manifesting an interest in our welfare. Also to the Oregon and California Railroad Company, the North Pacific Transportation Company and Oregon Steam Navigation Company as well as to the musical talent of our city Messrs Nesfield, Wyatt, Schuyler, Delmar and very many others to all of whom the thanks of the Association are due.

Nearly twenty three years [illegible] on this coast has [illegible] that the work of our Association is one [illegible] in [illegible] city.

We must make our rooms attractive to young men [illegible] we must [illegible] and by all that lays in our power and then with that Christian [illegible] which will win them from the [illegible] and haunts of vice and try and convince them that we only desire their greatest good. But in order to accomplish any very great amount of good every member of the Association must work and feel a personal responsibility and I trust every one will come up to their duty.

The work should not be left to half a dozen members but every one should resolve from to night to enter prayerfully into this work asking the Master to direct him in his duty.

Young men of good moral character, Christian young men are needed to fill responsible positions as clerks, book keepers and other places of trust, and let me [illegible] from [illegible] that this [illegible] young men [illegible].

[illegible] but suppose we [illegible] in having [illegible] for time but for eternity. Oh could I have had the [illegible] of a Young Men's Christian Association [illegible] to this [illegible] it might have saved me many many years of [illegible] and very many regrets [illegible].

It is the desire of the Association to carry forward the work so well begun the [illegible] but to do it successfully [illegible] is needed.

It is for you to say go forward [illegible] other hand your work of charity is ended.

We want your decision. We have many reasons for an Association to be encouraged for the progress we have made in the past year and it should stimulate every member to renewed energy and work more faithfully in the year to come.

A wide field for usefulness is open before us and each member has an opportunity of [illegible] that shall not only last through time but through all eternity.

Our work is one in which we cannot expect any reward here in this world but that of conscience but we are assured it will meet with the approbation of Him who has gone to prepare a place for us.

Our institution is the embodiment of the most advanced Christianity of the world. We know no denominational differences and our Association is doing more to break down the walls that have separated the churches than could be effected in any other way. It brings Christians of the different creeds together, they become acquainted and we soon learn that we differ but in name that we are fighting under the same banner and that the different churches but go to make up the different divisions of the Grand Army of Emmanuel. And in conclusion I would say that we desire the hearty co operation of every father and mother in this city. It is your sons as well as those that come to us from far off homes that we strive to benefit and to night thousands of parents all over this land of ours are sending up their prayers in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association because of their labor in behalf of their sons. Then Brothers of the Association

Let us stroke by stroke work on
Step by step contented go
Count each gain a victory won
And from grace to glory grow

WESLEY JACKSON

SIDEWALK OBSTRUCTIONS.—Immense piles of wood can be found in many portions of the city lying on the sidewalks, awaiting patient "John" with "horse" and buck saw. This is all well enough. People are wise to provide for the winter's supply of fuel in time, but still the wood ought to be sawed into proper lengths and stowed away in the wood shed. That is the proper place for it, and not on the sidewalk. It obstructs travel and disfigures the appearance of the streets. If people wish to have their wood seasoned it will dry out much sooner by being split fine than by being exposed for several weeks on the sidewalks. People generally in this latitude consult individual convenience before that of the public but the public should have a little say in the matter. To assist things along the Street Commissioner should pass around often and burnish up their memories with a bit of official sand paper. It would do no harm and might do a power of good. It is true that official is not ubiquitous, and can not do everything at once but we venture these suggestions for what they are worth. Vigorous stirring with a long pole would arouse some of these dilatory fellows up to the acting point. In one place on Third street, about one dozen buggies and carriages can be seen standing about half the time ranged along the sidewalk. If a man rides or drives on the sidewalks he is subjecting himself to a fine and if a carriage is left standing on the same without a license or special permit, it appears that the owner is also liable. The sidewalks are constructed for the benefit of pedestrians and they should be allowed the undivided use of them.

MODEL CRITIQUE.—Portland does not possess any very brilliant art or theatrical critique, or as for the matter of that no wonderful genius illuminates the many dark crooks and corners of the local department of the three dailies. But we (speaking for the confraternity) need not tremble for our laurels or incontinently toss up the sponge while another rival like unto the following is in the field. It is from the San Francisco Call. The writer is evidently an amateur at the bellows. Speaking of one of the celebrated artistes there, he says "Her voice is fresh and pleasing, and she performed her allotted part in an easy unaffected manner displaying skill not only as an artiste but also as an actress." Such an expression would have been pardonable for a Portland quill driver to have made but San Francisco so sharp [illegible] and discriminating in her judgment and tastes so critical and yet so appreciative to have swallowed the above dose is [illegible] to be borne with the remotest degree of patience. What the critique could have meant by not only as an artiste but also as an actress is a caution. He will die [illegible] he ought to go on shore after that.

FIRE DELEGATES.—The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department held a meeting at the Police Court room last Saturday evening. Present—President J H Lyon, A B Hallock, A C Ripley, J A Thomas, R Holman, C Marvin, T Moffit, F A Arnold.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

The charges against the Foreman of No 1 preferred by the First Assistant Engineer in the absence of testimony to support the same were dismissed.

Applications from the Secretaries of No 1 and [illegible] for certificates for new members elect were granted.

The application of W H D [illegible] for exempt certificate was referred to the Committee on Certificates.

The resignations of F D W Harlesburg and [illegible] Kilbourn as Delegates were accepted.

The fines against members of the Board for absence from meetings were [illegible].

ST HELENS HALL.—We have received a copy of the St Helens Hall catalogue. It embraces the year extending from September [illegible] [illegible] During [illegible] to dance was [illegible] [illegible] Friday January 31st. The Easter [illegible] Saturday February [illegible] Wednesday June [illegible] year. From December [illegible] January 1st inclusive. Epiphany January 6th. From April 11th to April 17th inclusive. Thanksgiving day [illegible] Wednesday February 26th. Ascension day May 2 [illegible].

BETTER TRY IT.—An exchange says that Ole Bull when young attempted suicide and now he is the best violinist in the world. There is a young man in the neighborhood of Salmon and Third street who plays the flute. He is not a success at it. Probably if he were to attempt suicide he would learn much faster. Should he succeed in his attempt at suicide some of his neighbors would be just as well satisfied.

Combining comfort and labor must have been in the mind of the Yankee who has lately invented a patent revolving fan for the convenience of women which is attached to sewing machines and is worked in connection with them. They are unknown to Portland ladies, and we suspect to Tom Hood too or else the world would never have had his "Song of the Shirt."

IN MEMORIAM

At a communication of Portland Lodge, No 55 A F and A Masons, the following were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS It has pleased our Supreme Grand Master in the mysterious workings of His providence to call our well beloved Brother Charles F Wiegand from work in the Lodge below to refreshment and rest in the Supreme Grand Lodge on high; therefore Resolved 1st That in his death the Lodge and our whole fraternity have lost a true and worthy Brother, the community a useful and respected citizen, his family a devoted husband and a kind indulgent father.

2 That while we deplore the loss of our deceased Brother we realize that his daily life, exemplifying those beautiful tenets, Brotherly Love Relief and Truth fitted him as a living stone for that spiritual building—that house not made with hands eternal in the heavens.

[illegible] That we tenderly sympathize with the family of the deceased in this their saddest hour of affliction.

[illegible] That [illegible] the members of this Lodge wear [illegible] badge and that the Lodge room be draped in mourning for thirty days.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HOMESTEADS.

The following circular relating to Soldiers and Sailors' Homesteads, under the act of Congress approved June 8, 1872, has been issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under date of Washington, [illegible] 1872:

Gentlemen: Attached [illegible] a copy of the amended law of Congress granting homesteads to soldiers and sailors, their widows and orphan children.

This law allows

1st. Every soldier and officer of the army, and every seaman, marine, and officer of the navy, who served for not less than ninety days in the army or navy of the United States "during the recent rebellion," and who was honorably discharged and has remained loyal to the Government to enter, under the provisions of the homestead law, one hundred and sixty acres of the public land, including the double minimum lands.

2d. That the time of service, or the whole term of enlistment, when discharged on account of wounds or disability, shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect title; provided, however, that the person shall reside upon, improve, and cultivate his homestead for a period of at least one year after he shall commence his improvements. It is required that the period (whether one year or more) of actual residence, improvement, and cultivation that may be found necessary to perfect each case of entry under this act, shall follow immediately upon the date entry.

3d. That any person entitled to the benefit of this act, and who has heretofore made a homestead entry of less than one hundred and sixty acres, may enter under this act an additional quantity of land contiguous to the first entry, which shall make in the aggregate one hundred and sixty acres.

4th. That the widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marraige, then the minor orphan children of a person who would be entitled to the benefits of this act, may enter lands under its provisions, with the additional privileges accorded, that if the person died during his term of enlistment, the widow or minor children, shall have the benefit of the whole term of enlistment.

5th. That where a person may heretofore have made an entry under the homestead laws while in the United States military or naval service, or before entering such service, the time of service shall be equivalent to a residence for the same length of time upon the tract so entered; provided, that the party shall show at least one year's continued residence upon, and improvement and cultivation of the tract. The law also reinstates such entries as may have been canceled because of the party's absence from the land while in the military or naval service, provided the land has not been disposed of, the statute authorizes another entry and the application to the second entry of the proofs touching his residence and improvement on the first tract.

6th. That any person entitled to the benefit of this act may file his claim for a tract of land through an agent, and shall have six months thereafter within which to make his entry and commence his settlement and improvement upon the land.

The last section of the act authorizes the Commissioner of the General Land office "to make all needful rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions" of the act.

Therefore, when application shall be made to enter a tract of land under the provisions of this act, you will permit

1. In case of original claimants, entry to be made; but if the party so elect, he may file a declaration to the effect that he claims a specified tract of land as his homestead, and that he takes it for actual settlement and cultivation. These statements you will enter upon your records and report in an abstract as homestead declarations, commencing the series with number one.

Thereafter, and at any time after six months from the date of said declaration, you will allow the principal to make, in the usual manner, a homestead entry of the tract. These entries you will report with your regular series of homesteads, using, however, the terms hereto attached. Should the party present his declaration through an agent, as authorized by the fifth section, said agent must produce a duly executed power of attorney from the principal desiring to make the entry, who will be bound by the selection his agent may make, the same as though made by himself. Failure on the part of a principal to make entry of the tract filed upon by himself, or agent, within six months from the date of said filing, will be regarded as an abandonment, and will entail a forfeiture of all right of the said principal to the benefits of this act.

2. Claims of widows and orphan children.—The initiation of a claim by a declaration will be the same as in the first instance. When making the homestead entry, the widow must make affidavit of her widowhood and right to enter; and in case of minor orphan children, the duly appointed guardian must file certified copies of the power of guardianship when making the declaration, which must be transmitted with the abstract of such declaration. It is not compulsory in any case that a party when applying in person should first file a declaratory statement. That is a privilege accorded him, but he may at once make an entry of the land upon the proofs necessary to show his right under the law.

3. Settlers whose entries have been canceled.—The applicant must make oath that he had made an entry while in the military or naval service, or prior to such service, giving the date of entry, and describing the tract of land entered; that he went upon, or returned to the land within six months from the date of his discharge from the service, and that his entry was canceled by reason of his absence from the claim for more than six months while in the United States service. This affidavit you will transmit, with a report of the condition of your records, for the examination of this office, when, if found correct, and the land covered by the original entry is found to be undisposed of, the entry will be reinstated on the records, and the applicant allowed to make proof that he had settled upon, improved and cultivated the tract, which proof, if satisfactory, will entitle him to a patent. If the tract has been disposed of he will be allowed to select another homestead, and cultivation of the first tract may be used by him in proving his claim in the second entry. You will not, however, allow any entry under this head except upon instructions from this office.

5. Applicants for additional lands.—Such person will file their applications for the tract desired, which must be contiguous to the original homestead. The entire tract must not exceed one hundred and sixty acres, except in the nature of an immaterial excess, caused by the fractional character of some sub-divisions of the public surveys, such as is now allowed in similar cases. The application must be accompanied by the prescribed evidence of the military or naval service of the applicant and of his right to the benefit of the law. An entry of additional land will take the current date.

A, B, C, D, are forms of declaration, application, affidavit and receipt to be used under this law, and you will be careful to use them in all cases arising under it. In addition to these forms you will require, when entries are made in the future:

1st. From original applicants, certified copies of certificates of discharge, showing when the party enlisted and when he was discharged, or, if these cannot be procured, then satisfactory evidence on the these points.

2d. In case of widows, evidence of service of husband and affidavit of widowhood.

3d. In case of minor orphan children, in addition to evidence of military service, proof of death or marriage of the mother. Evidence of death may be the testimony of two witnesses or certificate of a physician fully attested. Evidence of marriage may be certified by a copy of a marriage certificate, or of the record of the same, or testimony of two witnesses to the marriage ceremony.

The register and receiver will be allowed to charge one dollar each for receiving and filing the initiatory declaration of the parties whenever they exercise the privilege of first filing such declaration, but you will take care to advise applicants that such declaration is not necessary where they first apply in person to make an actual homestead entry. This fee the receiver will account for in the usual manner, indicating the same therein as fees for "homestead declaration," which will be charged against the maximum of $3,000 now allowed by law. In the States and Territories, for which 50 per centum additional is allowed by section six of the act of March 21, 1864, the additional allowance will apply to the fee herein named.

Should any doubt arise in your mind upon any point of the law you will promptly communicate with this office and await instructions in the premises.

WILLIS DRUMMOND,
Commissioner.

The Albany [illegible] tells the following [illegible]:

A good one happened at the celebration [illegible] in the Fourth [illegible] Nesmith was one of the audience who were intently listening to the impassioned and patriotic oration of Mr. [illegible], when a red-headed specimen of the genus [illegible] from the "rural deestricks" sidled up to Nez and asked him if he was "goin' to speak after that man," meaning [illegible] got through. "No, sir," answered Nez, "I have no idea of doing so." The man looked greatly surprised and disappointed, hung his head for a moment, and at last looking up with a still astonished gaze, blurted out: "Well, ain't anybody going to speak on the other side?" Nez got out of there so he could have an open field to fly to pieces in in case he should "burst" with hilarious laughter.

From the Eugene Journal: "The preliminary examination in the case of Rev. E. P. Henderson, contestant for the office of County Treasurer of Lane county, was heard before Judge Thayer, on Tuesday, the 9th. The points on which Mr. Henderson expected to gain the office are, first, a mistake in the count of North Eugene of several votes, second, the rejection of enough railroad votes to insure his election. Judge Thayer decided that the votes of railroad employees could not be rejected when they had a bona fide residence, as was the case with those voting in Lane county. A full hearing of the case will be had on the 23d of August before Judge Thayer. July 22d was set as the time for taking evidence before Joel Ware, County Clerk. In case the vote is not changed from the present count, Mr. Henderson will be elected by three majority.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY, July 13, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 113¾.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying; 88½c selling.

A steamer from Astoria to-day announces that a vessel, supposed to be the Garibaldi, from Hongkong, was seen off the bar this morning. She will probably reach here Monday or Tuesday.

The Jane A. Falkenburg is also due from Honolulu, it being about two months since she sailed from this port. She brings a cargo of sugar and tropical productions.

The brig Perpetua arrived this morning from San Francisco, in tow of the tug Merrimac. She brought about 300 tons of assorted cargo, which is being discharged at Flanders' wharf.

The steamer Ajax sailed for San Francisco this evening with passengers and the following freight: 93 pkgs old iron castings 50 empty beer kegs; 100 dozen buckets, 307 boxes eggs; 90 pkgs mdse; 107 half bbls salmon; 221 dry and green hides; 399 bales wool. Total, 300 tons.

A letter from Umatilla states that grasshoppers are very numerous and destructive in Birch creek, so much so that farmers are cutting all their crops for hay.

The first large lot of Wooden Ware from the factory of Biles & Co., Oregon City, was sent to San Francisco by steamer to-day. The lot consisted of one hundred dozen Ash Pails, made of superior timber, and of excellent finish. Unquestionably this ware will take a high place in the San Francisco market.

General Remarks.

Spite of the talk that has been prevalent about a general depression of business this year a number of our leading houses state that their aggregate sales, so far for 1872, are quite up to their sales for the like period in 1871. It is confessed, however, that remittances are not quite so free and regular. Still, the aspects of business are encouraging. The movement of Dry Goods continues steady, and our principal houses are making preparations for large stocks for the Fall Trade. The call for Staple Groceries is proportionably larger than in most other lines of goods. In Boots and Shoes trade continues fair. Preparations are making for the reception of very full stocks for the Fall and Winter Trade. For Hardware the call is steady. The demand for Building Hardware attests the progress of substantial improvements throughout the country. Sugars, as we observed the other day, have been marked up slightly, both here and in San Francisco. Latest mail advices from the East state that the market, which was disturbed by the labor strikes and other causes, is settling down, and is about as low as before. One report says: The business is very unsatisfactory, to say the least, as importers cannot sell except at a loss, and refiners are unable to keep the price of their goods up to the cost of manufacture. When the price of refined was advanced by refiners to 13c, grocers commenced realizing at a concession, and now that the New York refiners have again commenced work the price has declined to 12½c for granulated, and will probably again touch old figures.

The unprecedented fluctuations of the Wool market this year have caused as much surprise at the East as on the Pacific coast. In Boston and New York prices, at last mail dates, were still shrinking. The Boston Shipping List of June 29 says: There is nothing certainly in the advices to encourage holders of American fleece to expect fancy prices, and the sooner the market settles down on a basis that will lead to more free purchases, the better for all parties concerned. What embarrassments manufacturers will have to contend with the coming year is doubtful. Goods are now depressed and labor movements agitate both the old world and the new, and there is no knowing what a few weeks may bring about. The holding on policy occasionally pays, but the most successful Wool operators in the country are those who meet the market at the current rates.

A review of the condition of the Wheat crop, by late Eastern journals, indicates that the yield will generally be fair, the loss in one State being made up by improved crops in another. The Illinois crop will be something short; so will that of Kansas; but against the partial failures there are reports of a more than usual yield in Kentucky, Georgia, and other Southern States. Georgia, which last year bought wheat at St. Louis, is now offering to sell in that market. Tennessee has a good crop, and is offering samples in St. Louis. Southern Missouri has a very large crop, and Mississippi, which last year had little, has this year done very well. On the whole, the prospects are very fair, and do not indicate prices as high as was a while ago supposed would prevail.

Industrial Development.

In the census returns of 1870, which are being rapidly worked into shape, the total value of manufactures (gross production) of Oregon for the year is footed at $6,[illegible] 412. In 1860 the value was $2,976,761. This shows an increase of over 150 per cent. in our industries in ten years. The exhibit is an encouraging one. Taken in connection with the still more rapid increase now manifest, it gives great hopes for our future. Agencies are now at work which will quadruple the production of our State before the end of the present decade.

The industrial development of the United States since 1860 is something marvelous. According to the census the gross production of all the States and Territories of the Union for the year 1870 amounted to $4,232,325,61[illegible], against $1,885,861,672 in '60. In 1850 the gross products amounted to $1,019,106,616. It will be seen that the increase of industrial development for the whole Union taken together from 1860 to 1870 was nearly 150 per cent, while the increase during the preceding decade was only about 80 per cent. That our industrial development should have proceeded at so unprecedented a rate during this decade in which the civil war, and all business disturbances caused by it occurred, is a most striking fact. It is largely attributable to the wise policy of protecting our industries from ruinous foreign competition. It is a vindication of this policy, and shows that in spite of all that has been said against it, the country is far more prosperous under it than at any previous period in our history. Even the Southern States, during the decade of war and reconstruction, have made far more industrial progress than in the boasted era between 1850 and 1860, when Cotton was "King." Tennessee has doubled her production. South Carolina and Georgia have done likewise. And all the rest of the Southern States show an increased industrial development to a greater or less degree. By these facts it is demonstrated that the policy now being pursued is the successful policy for the country. Will the people exchange it for doubtful experiments? We shall see.

Domestic Produce.

WHEAT—Telegraphic advices from San Francisco still show a declining market. Holders' views [illegible] those of buyers. Judging from quotations in Liverpool, New York and San Francisco our market will not bear more than $1 40 to $1 45 here. It is yet impossible, however, to state with any certainty what offerings will be for new crop when free arrivals begin.

FLOUR—We have yet no changes to note. [illegible] general impression that prices must recede after the new crop of Wheat begins to come in.

POTATOES—Free arrivals of Oregon new [illegible] prices which may now be quoted at [illegible] per pound.

EGGS—Unchanged at 25c per doz.

BUTTER—[illegible] is still wanted. Most of that on the market is below strictly prime. Prices [illegible].

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

[illegible]

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily pursued a new policy towards the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted, the public lands freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. A uniform National currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the National credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step in this beneficent progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of those two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,
Oregon and California R R Co and
European and Oregon Land Co,
PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:

Preemption, [illegible] date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

Sir: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved [illegible] described land in the county of —— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said land at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement and shall be subject to the same conditions as of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that ——, of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) ——
Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when full payment is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum principal and interest payable in United States legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.
